

2010 Scholarship Topics
Viriva Community Credit Union

1. How has the current economic recession affected you?
2. What impact will the current economic recession have on today's youth (or high school/college students)?
3. Why is attending college important to you?
4. How would you creatively inform today's youth about the importance of financial literacy?
5. What is your perspective on the financial system and how can it help your community?
6. What are other cooperative organizations you use, and how do they compare to credit unions?